TODAY'S BASEBALL HERO

S. S. Smith.

was relieved by Uhl in the eighth.
Uhl performed acceptably and was not scored on.

Wheat Hit Hard.

Zach Wheat carried away the hitting honors of the day. Three singles in four times at bat—half of Brooklyn's total accumulations of base hits—ran off his wicked ash. Hi Myers also had a good day and scored two bingles to his credit. Brooklyn's sixth hit was accounted for by Olsen.Speaker's double in the fourth was the only regular hit of the crashing variety of Smith's delivery. A couple of Texas leaguers went to the credit of Steve O'Neil. That was all the Indians could do. In spite of their failure to solve Smith and the perfect Brooklyn defense, the Indians fought gamely to the end. They look far from being a beaten club and seemer ready to come back with both fists next Saturday.Real baseball weather prevailed today and the result was baseball enthusiasm of this world series variety for the first time in three days. The park was packed to capacity, more than 25,000 fans getting thru the gates.

BEFORE THE GAME

Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, Oct. 7.— Another reel of the autumn world's series thriller entitled "taking the third game," was thrown this afternoon on the baseball screen with the winners of National and American leagues—Brooklyn and Cleveland—in

First Inning.
CLEVELAND—Evans out, Olsen to Kon-etichy, 1b. Wambagans walked. Speaker out, Olsen to Konetichy. No runs; no hits; no errors.Smith had a difficult first inning. He was very wild and seemed nervous. Miller and Olsen encouraged him, but he had great difficulty in controlling his curves.BROOKLYN—Olsen walked. O'Neil went out to rain Caldwell. J. Johnston sacrificed. O'Neil to Burns, Olsen going to second. Griffith up. Mails went out to warm up. Griffith safe at first on Sewell's error. Olsen going to third. Wheat singled right. Olsen to Griffith. Olsen to second.
Wheat to second. It was a dinky pop fly which Burns touched with his glove but could not bring down. Mails now pitching for Cleveland. Konetichy popped to Wambagans. Kilduff fouled to Wood.Two runs, two hits, one error.
(Sewell's bobble of an easy grounder paved the way for Caldwell's walk.) But Ray was very wild and was falling fast. Hits by Wheat and Myers drove him to the dugout.Second Inning.
CLEVELAND—Gardner's terrific drive hit two inches outside the foul line. Gardner deflected a vicious drive on which Kilduff made a lightning pickup and sent him to first. Mails flew to hit Sewell center. Evans out, Kilduff to Konetichy.
No runs; no hits; no errors.(The Indians were fighting hard and Gardner and Wood hit Smith for frequent doublers. Miller was a step ahead of the Indians.)
BROOKLYN—Miller up. Ball one. Ball two. Strike one, called. Ball three. Strike two, called. It was high and the crowd rejoiced. Gardner hit Griffith's sensational work kept the bases clear.BROOKLYN—Miller up. Ball one. Ball deep short and missed the Indian by an eyeball. Speaker doubled to right and scored when the ball rolled past Wheat to the fence. Wheat was given an error.

This broke seventeen scoreless innings for the Indians. Burns out, Johnston to Kon-etichy, on another close play. Gardner out, J. Johnston to Konetichy. One run; one hit; one error.(Speaker's hit was the first off Smith.
It was a drive down the foul line which Wheat rolled between his legs.)
BROOKLYN—Konetichy walked. O'Neil went out and patted Mails on the back.
Kilduff sacrificed. Mails to Burns, sending Konetichy to second. Miller fled to Evans and Konetichy was left at second. Smith out, Burns unsatisfied. No runs; no hits; no errors.Mails speed was terrific. He was a trifle wild and had O'Neil hopping about behind the plate.Sixth Inning.
CLEVELAND—Wood fanned. The third strike was called. Sewell walked. O'Neil singled to center, sending Sewell to second.
Mails forced O'Neil, Olsen to Kilduff, and was doubled at first, by Kilduff's throw to Konetichy. No runs; one hit; no errors.(It was a lightning play that ended Cleveland's inning. Kilduff made a beautiful throw which Konetichy took on a pickup while stretched flat on his face.) BROOKLYN—Olsen fled to Speaker. J.
Johnston fanned, swinging hard at the last one. Nels popped to Burns. No runs; no hits; no errors.Mails uncocked a terrific burst of speed in this round. His fast ones were popping into O'Neil's glove with a tremendous thump.)
Sixth Inning.
CLEVELAND—Evans fled to Wheat who took his lefty offering close to the foul line in left. Wambagans out, Smith to Konetichy. Scurry single to center.
